DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities:

"...on on one of..." should read, "...on one of...". Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-9 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-9 of U.S. Patent No. 6,673,253.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other for the following reasons.

The principle difference between the claims can be seen by comparing steps b and g of the patented claim 1 to steps b and g of pending claim 1.

Art Unit: 1763

Claim 1 of 6,673,253 includes steps a-x. Steps b and g are replicated below:

claim 1 b) recites:

"forming first and second silicon oxide layers on said ejection and separation surfaces of said substrate, respectively;"

and step g) recites:

"coating a first photoresist layer on said second silicon oxide layer".

In contrast, pending claim 1, step b) recites:

"b) forming a first silicon oxide layer on on one of said first surface and said second surface of said substrate;"

And step g) recites:

"forming a second silicon oxide layer on the surface opposing said one of said first surface and said second surface and coating a first photoresist layer on said second silicon oxide layer".

Therefore, the second silicon oxide layer that is provided in step b) of the patent is not provided until step g) in the pending claims. However, it is noted that there is no limitation regarding the order in which the steps are carried out. When step g of pending claim 1 is carried out immediately after step b, one can readily see that there is little, if any, difference between the two sets of claims.
